The old grey duck
She stawl her nest
And laid down in the field,
And when the young ones
They came forth
They had no tails nor bills
They had no tail nor bills,
They had no tail nor bills
And when the young ones
They came forth
They had no tail nor bills

An hos loes koth
A deghas a'y neyth
Ha mos gorwedha y'n lin;
Pan dheuth yn-mes

Ny's tevo lost na min.
Ny's tevo lost na min.
Ny's tevo lost na min.
Pan dheuth yn-mes
Pellennow pluv
Ny's tevo lost na min.

Twos eggs were addled
And one was broke
And they were thrown away
The young ones they Couldn't cluck nor swim
They all died that same day
They all

Next time we'll put her
In the barn
Or tie her by the heels
The young ones then
May have a chance
To grow their tails and bills
To grow
